

Kenneth Wendler is Chief Credit Officer at Wingspire, a portfolio company of Owl Rock Capital Corporation (NYSE: ORCC). Wingspire is a senior secured credit fund focused on middle market companies. Owl Rock Capital Partners, together with its subsidiaries, is a New York based direct lending platform with approximately $17.3 billion of assets under management as of March 31, 2020.

Mr. Wendler has 32 years of experience in middle market lending and credit with a product focus in leveraged lending, asset based lending, asset backed lending, factoring, leasing, real estate lending and maritime lending. Having to review and approve loan facilities across a myriad of industries Mr. Wendler has experience in; communication, media, data centers, tower companies, film distribution companies, information technology, reserve based lending, project finance, commercial and industrial, healthcare, Skilled nursing facilities, marine, aerospace and defense.

RECENT CAREER

Dual role as the Deputy Chief Credit Officer of CIT (since 2010) and Chief Credit Officer of Corporate Finance (since 2013). In his role as the Deputy Chief Credit Officer his responsibilities include:

- Vice Chairman of CIT's Corporate Credit Committee
- Vice Chairman of CIT's Corporate Credit Policy Committee
- Vice Chairman of CIT's Corporate Credit Strategy Committee

In his role as the Chief Credit Officer of CIT Corporate Finance his responsibilities include:

- Chairman of the Corporate Finance Credit Committee
- Oversight of the $10B Corporate Finance Portfolio of assets
- Setting credit standards
- Hold and sale decisions as it relates to portfolio assets
- Risk rating of the individual credits of the portfolio on a regulatory and FAS 5 basis

From 2010 to 2013 Mr. Wendler was the Deputy Chief Credit Officer and Head of Problem Loan Management at CIT. In this dual role, Mr. Wendler was the Vice Chairman of the Corporate Credit Committee and managed a team of 30 workout professionals. Mr. Wendler is credited with transforming the Problem Loan Department of CIT from one deemed significantly lacking Financial Holding Company compliance by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York to one that is now deemed fully compliant with Financial Holding Company standards.

EDUCATION

- BA from The College of NJ in 1988
- MBA from Columbia University in 1999