

Sponsoring Organization Certificate of Attendance

This form serves as a certificate of attendance in the event that the sponsoring organization does not provide such a document. It is mandatory that this form be verified by a representative of the sponsoring organization through his/her completion of the lower portion of the form (the CTP or CTA may complete the upper portion of the form). It is the responsibility of the CTP or CTA to obtain this verification and completed form, along with a copy of the course agenda or other documentation reflecting the hours and content of the program.

To be completed by CTP or CTA
