

Alan Breindel

Director of Special Assets
Bank of Greene County
Phone: (518) 943-2600 ext. 2541
Email: alanb@tbogc.com

Alan Breindel is the Director of Special Assets for The Bank of Greene County. Alan's career includes 40+ years with major money center financial institutions and investment banks, including Chemical Bank, Bank of New York, Chase Manhattan, J.P.Morgan, Westdeutsche ImmobilienBank and Cowen & Company. Alan's experience encompasses originating and structuring real estate debt and equity financings across all major property types and geographic markets; as well as serving in senior roles related to workouts and restructurings, disposition of sub-performing and distressed debt, portfolio and asset management, credit and risk management, construction lending, and syndicated financings. Alan provides consulting services and solutions to financial institutions related to workouts and restructurings, complex real estate debt and equity matter, and litigation management. Alan is co-author of the Real Estate Restructurings and Workouts Section of Real Estate Transactions published by Warren, Gorham & Lamont. Alan is a graduate of Brooklyn Law School and Queens College, City University of New York.